Last and Most Marvellous of Verne's Stories

As yet the publishers who have had exclusive control of the late Jules Verne's literary output since his sudden death have announced no further volumes. It is doubtful if any complete, or nearly complete, manuscript exists, but the novel's literary executors have just now permitted the publication of a most interesting and characteristic sketch, showing the general design of a tale which Verne was planning at the time of his death. The last message of the dying novelist to his readers will be given in the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN.

Which Duke is the one Referred to by Andrew Carnegie?

When the multi-millionaire's niece married her mother's former coachman Mr. Carnegie is reported to have said that the family would much rather have such a husband for Nancy than have such a son-in-law. And now an indignant chorus of "No!" is being raised. Would like to know just what Mr. Carnegie meant in his note about his objection to "worthless dukes" as relatives.

Waiting for the Mother-in-Law to Give Up Its Victim.

Forty years ago Lord Francis Douglas perished on his return from a successful ascent of the famous Alpine peak. His body was never recovered, and for forty years the slow moving glacier has been encroaching toward the valley. The story of the tragedy is of especial interest at present because the bottom of the glacier is now being closely watched in the hope that the mass of ice will give up its frozen form of the nobleman to the searchers.

If Radio Activity Cures President Harger's Cancer.

Upon the life or death of President William Hargis Harger of the Chicago University hangs the fate of countless thousands of cancer victims. SHEET MUSIC

A SPECIAL OFFER.

Witmark's Famous (25c Postpaid) Dance Folio

This Book Consists of 24 Excellent Compositions by Eminent Composers.

We are offering to our patrons this week a music book that should particularly appeal to them; that is, from a musical point of view, as this book contains 24 of the finest as well as the most meritorious compositions published, and all for 25c postpaid.

If you buy a few of the musical gems contained in this folio:

- The Message of the Violin, the most beautiful of the "Prince of Plaisance" arranged as a waltz; "Good-bye, Little Girl," the great march song of the "Prince of Plaisance"; "The Flower of My Heart, Sweet Adeline," the beautiful ballad that has met with universal favor, arranged as a waltz; and as a "Dance" "You Are the Only, Only, Only," and many other splendid numbers.

It is a treat to get for the small sum of 25c, postpaid, a folio of such exceptional merit.

the following latest vocal and instrumental numbers of the season published:

HARVARD WILL CLASH WITH PORTSMOUTH NINE

CRIMSON WILL BE WEAKENED BY ABSENCE OF RANDALL—COBURN SLATED TO PITCH.

BATTING ORDER.

HARVARD. 1. Randall, 2. Coburn, 3. ...

PORTSMOUTH. 1. ... 2. ... 3. ...

The injury to Captain Randall's ankle has been found to be more serious than was thought at first. Trainer McDermott reports that the Harvard captain will not be able to play for at least a week.

This will necessitate the shifting of McDermott from the first to the second position. Coburn will be slotted in to hold the position in good shape.

The outfield will be weak, however, with Randall in the left, McDermott in the center and Spencer in right. None of these men are hitters, though Randall and Spencer hold well.

Paul Coburn will, in the box for Harvard.
